DECLARATION

OF THE STATE OF

MISSISSIPPI

IN THE YEAR

1864

AND IN THE CITY OF

THIS

NOTARY PUBLIC

By his Maiesties Counseil for VIRGINIA.

After the many disasters, wherewith it pleased Almighty God to suffer the great Enemy of all good Actions and his Instruments, to encounter and interrupt, to oppresse and keepe weake, this noble Action for the planting of Virginia, with Christian Religion, and English people: It hauing pleased him now contrarily of his especiall great grace, so to blesse and prosper our late carefull endeouours, as well for the repairing of all former breaches, as for supplying of the present defects, wherewith the Colony was kept downe, that it hath as it were on a sodaine growne to double that height, strength, plenty, and prosperity, which it had in former times attained: We haue thought it now the peculiar duety of our place, accordingly as it hath beene also ordered by a generall Court, to Summon as it were by a kinde of louing inuitement, the whole Body of the Noble and other worthy Adventurors, as well to the conseruing and perfecting of this happy worke, as to the reaping of the fruit of their great expences and troubles.

And first to remove that vnworthy aspersiō, wherewith with ill disposed mindes, guiding their Actions by corrupt ends, haue both by Letters from thence, and by rumours here at home, sought vniuſtly to ſtaine and blemish that Countrey, as being barren and vnprofitable; Wee haue thought it neceſſary for the full ſatisfaction of all, to make it publickly known, that by diligent examination we haue aſſuredly found, thoſe Letters and Rumours to haue been falſe and malicious; procured by praſtiſe, and ſuborned to euill purpoſes: and contrarily diſaduowed by the teſtimony vpon Oath of the chiefe Inhabitants of all the Colony; by whom we are aſcertained, that the Countrey is rich, ſpacious and well watered; temperate as for the Climate, very healthfull after men are a little accuſtomed to it; abounding with all Gods naturall bleſſings: The Land replenished with the goodlieſt Woods in the world, and thoſe full of Deere, and other Beasts for ſuſtenance: The Seas and Riuers (whereof many are exceeding faire and nauigable,) full of excellent Fiſh, and of all ſorts deſireable; both Water and Land yeelding Fowle in very great ſtore and variety: In Summe, a Countrey, too good for ill people; and wee hope reſerued by the prouidence of God, for ſuch as ſhall apply themſelues faithfully to his ſeruice, and be a ſtrength and honour to our King and Nation. But touching thoſe Commodities for which that Countrey is proper, and which haue beene lately ſet vp for the Aduenturors benefit: we referre you to a true note of them, lately deliuered in a great and generall Court, and hereunto annexed for your better information. By which and other approved informations brought vnto vs, We reſt in great aſſurance, that this Countrey, as it is ſeated neere the miſt of the world, betweene the extremities of heat and cold; So it alſo participateth ticipateth of the benefits of bothe, and is capable (being assisted with skill and industry) of the richest commodities of most parts of the earth. The rich Furies, Caviary, and Cordage, which we draw from Russia with so great difficulty, are to be had in Virginia, and the parts adioyning, with ease and plenty. The Massis, Plancks, and Boords, the Pitch and Tarre, the Pot-ashes and Sapealbes, the Hempe and Flaxe, (being the materials of Linnen,) which now we fetch from Norway, Denmarke, Pe-land, and Germany, are there to be had in abundance and great perfection. The Iron, which hath so wasted our English Woods, that it selle in short time must decay together with them, is to be had in Virginia, (where wasting of Woods is a benefit) for all good conditions answerable to the best in the world. The Wines, Fruite, and Salt of France and Spaine; The silkes of Persia and Italy, will be found also in Virginia, and in no kinde of worth inferiour.

 We omit here a multitude of other naturall Commodi-zies, dispersed vp and down the diuers parts of the world:
 of Woods, Rootes, and Berries, for excellent Dyes: of Plants and other Drugges, for Physicall seruice: of sweet Woods, Oyles, and Gummes, for pleasure and other vse:
 of Cotten-wooll, and Suger Canes: all which may there also be had in abundance, with an infinity of other more:
 And will conclude with these three, Corne, Cattle and Fish, which are the substance of the foode of man. The Graines of our Countrey doe prosper there very well: Of Wheate they have great plenty: But their Maze, being the naturall Graine of that Countrey, doth farre exceede in pleasantnesse, strength and fertility. The Cattle which we haue transported thither, (being now growne neere to three hundred) become much bigger of Body, then the breed

breed from which they came: The Horses also more beautifull, and fuller of courage. And such is the extraordinary fertility of that Soyle, that the *Doe*s of their Deere yeeld two Fawnes at a birth, and sometimes three. The Fishings at Cape Codd, being within those Limits; will in plenty of Fish be equall to those of New-found-Land, and in goodnesse and greatnesse much superiour. To conclude, it is a Countrey, which nothing but ignorance can thinke ill of, and which no man but of a corrupt minde and ill purpose can defame.

Now touching the present estate of our Colony in that Country, We haue thought it not vnfit thus much briefly to declare. There haue bin sent thither this last yeere, and are now presently in going, twelue hundred persons and vppward, as particularly appeareth in the note aboue specified: and there are neere one thousand more remaining of those that were gone before. The men lately sent, haue bin most of them choise men, borne & bred vp to labour and industry. Out of Deuonshire, about an hundred men, brought vp to Husbandry. Out of Warwickshire and Staffordshire, about one hundred and ten; and out of Sussex, about forty; all framed to Iron-workes: the rest dispersedly out of diuers Shires of the Realme. There haue beene also sundry persons of good quality, much commended for sufficiency, industry and honesty; provided and sent to take charge and gouernment of those people. The care likewise that hath beene taken by directions, Instructions, Charters, and Commissions to reduce the people and affaires in Virginia into a regular course, hath bin such and so great, that the Colony beginneth now to haue the face and fashion of an orderly State, and such as is likely to grow and prosper. The people are all diuided into severall Burroughs; each man having the shares of Land due to him set out, to hold and enjoy to him and his Heires. The publike Lands for the Company here, for the Gouvernour there, for the Colledge, and for each particular Burrough, for the Ministers also, and for diuers other necessary Officers, are likewise laid out by order, and bounded. The particular Plantations for diuers private Societies, are settled in their Seates, being allotted to their content, and each in conuenient distance. The rigour of Martiall Law, wherewith before they were governed, is reduced within the limits prescribed by his Maiestie: and the laudable forme of Iustice and government vsed in this Realme, established, and followed as neere as may be. The Gouvernour is so restrained to a Councell ioyned with him, that hee can doe wrong to no man, who may not haue speedy remedy. Each Burrough, and each particular Plantation, partly hath, partly is bound to haue in short time a sufficient Minister: for whom maintenance is ordained, to each of two hundred pounds a yeere value. Which orderly proceeding there, by direction from hence, hath caused the Colony now at length to settle themselves in a firme resolution to perpetuate the Plantation. They fall to building of Houses, each for his owne private; and the Generality to the rearing of publique Guest-houses, for entertaining of new men vpon their first arriual. They fall to set up their Ploughes; to the Planting of Vineyards; to the pursuing of the Staple Commodities furnished and commended from hence. In summe, they are now so full of alacritie and cheerefulness, that in a late generall Assembly, they haue in the name of the Colony presented their greatest possible thanks to the Company for the care that hath bene taken for the set-ling of the Plantation. Neither is it to be omitted, the care which hath beene had here lately at home, for the reducing of all the proceedings and affaires of the Company, to an orderly course of good gouernment and Iustice. Wherein to begin with the fountaine thereof, his Maiesties authoritie and pleasure, there hath beene a collection made of all the branches of the same, dispersed in his Letters Patents, now three times renewed: as also out of other Instructions proceeding from his Maiestie. Out of both which, together with such other Orders as (authorized by his Maiestie) the Company themselves have thought necessary to make, hath beene compiled a booke of standing Orders and Constitutions, approved by the generall consent of all the Company: whereby both the company here, and the Colony in Virginia, haue their businesse carried regularly, industriously, and iustly, every man knowing both his right and duty, to their generall great content, and the great aduancement of the Action. And whereas the Colony likewise haue beene often Sutors in effect, to reduce into a compendious and orderly forme in writing, the Lawes of England proper for the vse of that Plantation, with addition of such other, as the nature of the place, the nouitie of the Colony, and other important circumstances should necessarily require: a course is likewise taken for the effecting of this worke; yet so as to submit it first to his Maiesties view and approbation; it being not fit that his Maiesties Subjects should be gouerned by any other Lawes, then such as receiue the influence of their life from him.

And now to cometo that which concerneth the Aduenturers in particular, by whose charges, care, and labour, (next vnto his Maiesties especiall grace) this famous Plantation hath not onely beene vnderaken, but through so many difficulties vpheld and continued: we should be very greatly iniurious to them, if we should not acquaint them with this seasonable time, for the reaping of that benefit and reward which is due vnto them. We therefore let them know, that in this last yeare now ended, there haue beene granted by the Company vnder their legall Seale, eleuen seuerall Patents for particular Plantations; and more are in hand to be passed this next Quarter-Court. It is not vnprobable that vpon each of these Patents, diuers hundreds of persons will soone Plant in Virginia: there haue beene already transported vpon the first, aboue three hundred men. These and otherlike Planters, hauing priority of time, will haue priority also in choise of the Seat of their Plantations. Seeing therefore the onely matter of retribution to the Aduenturers, is by a faire proportion of Land to them and their heires; namely of one hundred acres for euery share of twelue pounds & ten shillings, vpon a first diuision; & as much more vpon a second, the first being peopled; with fiftie acres for euery person, (to be doubled in like manner) which at their own charges they shal transport to inhabit in Virginia before the 24. day of June 1625. if he continue there three yeeres, either at one or seuerall times, or die after he is shipped for that voyage: It standeth them vpon, who are not willing to be the least in the benefit to be partaked, not to be the last in setting forth to the choise and peopling of their Land. Wherein what fauour or assistance may by vs be given them, they shall be well assured of it, in equall proportion with our selues, as their charges and long expectance haue well deserved. And to the end that not onely the Aduenturers now liuing, but the Heires also of the deceased, ceased, may take certaine notice of the severall proportions of Land, which ratably to their Adventurers in money are due and belonging to them: And likewise that posterity may truly know, by whose charges this Plantation (next vnder his Maiestie) hath beene happily founded, maintained, and continued: We haue here, according to an Order of Court, set downe in an Alphabeticall Table the names of all the Adventurors, with all their severall summes adventured. Wherein if by error, or other misaccident, there haue wrong be done to any man; if within one twelue moneth after the date hereof, he giue notice and make prooffe thereof to the Companies Auditors, he shall be set right, and the Table reformed: there being not anything more deere vnto vs, then to doe right vnto them, with all Iustifiable curtesie, who haue beene beginners and continuers of this glorious worke, tending so much to the propagating of the true service of Almighty God, to the adding of greatnesse and honour to our King, and to the benefit of our whole Nation in disburdening their multitude.

22. Iany. 1620.

A NOTE

Wherein what fault or mistake may be found, they shall be well rewarded, as their charges and labors shall be well rewarded. And to the end that the same may be well rewarded, we have well rewarded.

And for the ease and encrease of diuers of these workes, prouision is sent of men and materials, for the setting vp of sundry Sawing Milles.

S I L K E : for which that Countrey is exceeding proper, hauing innumerable store of Mulberry Trees of the best, and some Silke-wormes naturally found vpon them, producing excellent Silke: some whereof is to be seene. For the setting vp of which Commoditie, his Maiestie hath beene graciously pleased now the second time (the former hauing miscarried) to bestow vpon the Company pany plenty of Silke-wormes-seed of his owne store, being the best.

VINES: whereof the Country yeeldeth naturally great store, and of sundry sorts: which by culture will be brought to excellent perfection. For the effecting whereof, diuers skilfull Vignerons are sent, with store also from hence of Fine Plants of the best sort.

SALT: which works hauing bin lately suffered to decay, are now ordered to bee set vp in so great plenty, as not only to serue the Colony for the present; but as is hoped in short time also the great Fishings on those Coasts. bricke, which is to be performed out of the revenues of the Lands.

FINIS.

DECLARATION
of the Supplies intended to be sent to VIRGINIA, in this yeare 1620.

By his Maiesties Counseil for Virginia. 18. July 1620.

Hereas the Right Honourable,
Henry Earle of Southampton, with the aduise and consent of the Counseil and Company for Virginia, hath resolved and concluded to imploy all good meanes in this present yeare, 1620. not onely for the ad-uancing of the Plantation in strength and multitude of good people, but also for the enriching thereof with store of cattell of diuers sorts, and by setting vp or encreasing such Staple Commodities, as being proper for that Countrey, may be also of most necessary vse for this Realme, and redound in fine to the greatest benefit of both Aduenturers and Planters, and lastly for the establishing there of such good Government (originally derived from the Kings most excellent Maieitie, the first and chiefe Pounder of this glorious worke) is whereby the people there, diuided in soyle onely, but still participating in the religious and happy gouernment of this their natieue Countrey, may continue alwayes as one and the same people with vs, according to the most Princely direction of his Maieitie: We haue thought it very necessaric for the seconding and forwarding of those so noble Designes, not onely to publish them to the Aduenturers in generall, thereby to inuite them to concurre with vs in the same, but also to set downe such particularities requisite, as whereby the preparations of all sorts needfull, may vpon this timely warning, both better and more seasonably be made and compassed.

First therefore we haue thought fit, to make it publickly knowne, that besides the great store of particular Plantations now in providing, and like very shortly in large proportion to augment, the Company haue resolved in a late generall Court, by the blessing of God, to set out this yeere at the publike charge, and to send to Virginia, eight hundred choise persons, of the qualities ensuing: First, foure hundred, to be Tenants of the general land of the Company, to make vp the number of those Tenants full 500. wherof 200. to be placed at Elizabeth Citie, with the Companies Deputy: 100. at Henrico, 100. at Charles Citie: And at Jamez Citie there are a hundred and more already. Secondly, one hundred, to be Tenants to such Officers, &c. as the Court already hath, or shall shortly appoint: viz. 10. for the Deputy of the College, 40. for

40. for the Companies Deputy: 20. for the Secretary: 10 more (besides 50. already sent) for the Ministers: and 20. for the Physitian: their care for the ease and prosperity of the Colonic, being such and so great, as to cause them to endowe those Offices and places, (as they have formerly done others,) with faire possessions, furnished with Tenants and other fit provisions: that the peop'e may have the benefit by them, and yet be freed from the burden. Thirdly one hundred yong Maides to make wives for these Tenants as the former 90. which have been lately sent. Fourthly, one hundred Boyes, to be apprentizes likewise to the publike Tenants. Fiftly, one hundred servants to be disposed amongst the old Planters, which they greatly desire, and have offered to defray their charges with very great thanks. And although by reason of the preparations already made, the difficulty may be well conceived to be in great part overcome, and the profit much more neere, and more easie to come by, yet the Companie wholly affecting the peoples prosperity, have determined to deale both as fauourably in the Contracts, and as bountifully in all sorts of furniture and provisions with the Tenants which shal now goe, as they have done with those, which have beene formerly sent. Which conditions it hath beene thought fit here to reinsert and publish.

Every man transported into Virginia, with intent there to inhabit, as Tenants to the Common land of the Company, or to the publike land, shall be freely landed there at the charge of the Company: And shall be furnished with provisions of victuall for one whole yeare next after his arrivall, as also of Cattle: And with apparell, weapons, tooles and implements, both of house and labour, for his necessary use. He shall enjoy the ratable moytie of all the profits that shall be raised of the land on which he shall be Planted, as well Corne and Cattle, as other commodities whatsoever: the other halfe being due to the Owners of the Land.

He shall be tyed by Covenant, to continue upon that Land for the Terme of seaven yeares: which being expired, it shal be in his choyse, waither to continue there or to remove to any other place, at his owne will and pleasure.

Of these persons, one hundred and twenty (such as are to be Tenants) are to be shipped here for Virginia, by the midst of August now at hand: and the rest in January and February ensuing.

The next preparations are of Cattle of divers sorts: whereof there are intended in the next Spring to be sent these ensuing. One hundred Kine, for this addition of 500. Tenants. One hundred Kine more, to remaine in a perpetuall stock vpon the Companies Land, to be lent to new Planters, as hath bin formerly ordered. Foure hundred Goats, twenty Mares, fourescore Asses to be procured from France: The care of providing which, is commended to divers select persons by parts, and the whole to the oversight of the generall Comitties.

The last prouisions appointed to be made, are for the setting vp, or increasng of diuers principall Commodities. For Silke, there is prouision to be made, of great store of Silke-worme-seede about Michaelmas

next:

next : as also of men skilfull in the ordering as well of the Wormes, as of their Silke, which are to be sent away in a Pinnace, in October betimes. For Hempe and Flaxe, Pot-asbes and Sape-asbes, Pitch and Tarre, there is a Treaty already on foote, for procuring of men skilfull in those Trades from the Easterne parts: besides the Polakers yet remaining in Virginia. For Wines, it is also ordered, that men skilfull be procured in the planting and dressing of Vines, out of France and from the Rhene: and from thence also and other parts to procure Plants of the best kinds. For Oyle, besides great quantitie to be made out of the Walnuts, growing naturally in Virginia in great abundance, Olive-Plants are to be provided from Marsilles and Ligorno. For Fish, which on those Coasts are taken in great plenty, and in worth much better then in New-found-Land, there is care and a course taken, to prelerue the Companies Liberties, and to set vp the Fishings in better sort then heretofore. For Salt, order is given for the making of it in abundance, and after the manner of those hotter Climates, which may prooue a great helpe to increase the Plantation. For Iron, there is sufficient done already.

And for Sawing-Milles, besides those already gone this Spring, there are lately come from Hamborough, diuers Workemen very skilfull, to be sent in the next ship. And that nothing may be wanting for the Companies Tenants, there is a Pinnace already, and other Boates shall be provided, to remaine there at the Deputies commaund, to traffique and trade for the Company and their Tenants vnder his charge.

These

These large supplies of men, Cattle, and Commodities, as they tend to the accomplishing of this great worke of the Plantation: so can they not be themselves effected, without large provision of money, being the sinewes and moving Instruments in these great Actions.

To which end wee desire the noble and worthy Adventurors, to be assisting to vs, by such meanes as they shall please: especially that the remaine of all promised Adventures, may in Michaelmas Terme next be paid in without faile, which we trust will now be done cheerefully on all parts, the inuitements of this yeere being well considered: that as the presenting of their first payments, hath been the beginning, so the performance of the later, may be the perfecting and finishing of this worke, so glorious before God and man.

And here by the way, for the clearing of some scruples and errors through mistaking of our writings lately published, we are to aduertise, that the Alphabet of Adventurers and summes adventured, neither then conveniently could, nor was intended to extend any further, then to such summes as haue been paid in to the Treasurers of the Company, and to Sir Baptist Hicks, by speciall order of Court. And whereas diuers other bills of Adventure, haue bin heretofore delineated, partly vpon personall adventure, and no money paid in, partly vpon gift from the Company, in regard of desert, partly for summes paid to other men, whose Accounts hang yet vncleared (and not to the Treasurers) and partly for goods which neuer came within within the Treasurers Accounts, but of other inferior Officers, into whose hands they were delivered, for which notwithstanding bills of Adventure have been delivered, mentioning as if it were money paid to the Treasurer: If the Adventurors shall be pleased within the time prefixed, to put in their iust claimes, by these or any other wayes whatsoever, there shall be right done to them, and a new Alphabeticall booke shall be published, embracing exactly all kinde of Adventurors, with their severall summes either really adventured, or otherwise accepted, allowed or bestowed, be it vpon what cause, or in what kinde soever.

Now if the Adventurors be thus requested, with much greater reason are all Accountants to the Company to be prayed and required, to prepare and make perfect their severall Accounts, and to pay in those monyes, which shall remaine due to the Company: that so all parts concurring with their duties and endeouours, the worke may proceede with generall ioy.

Lastly, as heretofore, so we now also declare, that the persons to be admitted to goe, as the Companies Tenants, and with the foresaid conditions, shall be no other then good men, that is to say, of good Trades, of skill in husbandry, or industrious labourers; and such of those as shall be commended for their honest conversation: which persons repairing to the Citty of London, to Mr. Ferrar, Deputy to the Company, his house in St. Sithes lane, in the beginning of August, and in the middle of January, next, according to the severall numbers at those times to be sent, shall from thence forward be entertained, at the Companies charges, till such time as they be shipped for Virginia: there being especiall care likewise taken, for the providing of good Commanders and Directors of their workes.

Given in a Generall Court held for Virginia the eighteenth of July, 1620.
